Dear Katerina & KA Group Team,

I am writing to say what an absolute pleasure it was working with you at the recent Public Speaking Conference event in Kiev.

Thank you so much for making me feel so welcome. I was hugely impressed by your professionalism and commitment to making it the best possible event for all attendees.

Feel free to quote me as follows in any marketing material you may choose to create:

"As a professional speaker, I have extensive experience working with clients and audiences all over the world, across more than fifteen countries in Asia, the Middle East and Europe.

"I found KA Group to be hugely professional and an absolute pleasure to work with. They're 100% committed to providing an experience for delegates which is inspiring, relevant and of the highest possible value. I can recommend them in the strongest terms to any potential partner or client organisation."

I wish you continued success – and look forward to working together again very soon!

Kind regards,

Simon Bucknall
